A Race Management seminar designed to prepare individuals for certification as a BC Sailing Club Race Officer.

The two day weekend seminar will feature Race Management Rules, Policy, Procedure as well as practical solutions to race management problems.

There will not be a graded examination.

Upon conclusion of the Seminar, those with experience as a race officer in charge of the course over the past 3 years, will be certified as a Club Race Officer. Those without experience will be certified upon notification that they have performed as a race officer in charge of a course.

Coffee, Muffins, snacks etc will be available throughout the day as well as a lunch.

The booklet “Join the Race Management Team” will be provided.

All attendees are required to bring their own Rule Book.

Many sailors not interested in a race management career take this course to gain insight into what the race committee is doing, and what messages they are sending out that might be of value to a competitor.

Registration fee. $60.00 (tax included), please register in advance by returning this form to BC Sailing along with payment.
